PLAN FOR MEDICAL PROGRESS
A very interesting program to improve the quantity of medical care was presented by Dr. William B. Rawls in his inaugural address as president of the Medical Society of the County of New York. It is indicative of the positive approach toward medical problems that is being taken by thousands of doctors.

Dr. Rawls said that his program was an answer to the advocates of hospital care, which he described as "medically ineffectual, economically unsound, politically dangerous." According to a New York Times account, some of its main points are: Development of voluntary health and hospital insurance; increased hospital beds, particularly in suburban and rural areas; development of group practice, and the development of a plan for helping the indigent.

There are two particularly important phases to this. First of all, it is designed to give the country better medical care than it now has. Secondly, it is designed to do it through voluntary means—not through compulsion by the government. In other words, it is based solidly on the principle that underlies all real progress in this country—free action by free men to get needed jobs done.

Dr. Rawls' goal is to make voluntary hospital and medical care insurance available to everyone in the country. The remarkable progress made by the various plans in the field in recent years is proof that it can be done, and without putting a political bureaucracy in a position of sweeping power over the practice of medicine.

Colored Groups Hold Annual Banquet

The New Farmers of America and New Homemakers of America, Chapters of Everglades Vocational High School, under the supervision of Mr. J. J. Holliday and Mrs. L. W. Childs, sponsored their annual Banquet on April 20th. About fifty members of both chapters that are in good standing had the pleasure of attending about seventy-five adults of the various Glades Communities to share in this regalia. While the feast was going on, both groups thrilled the audience with a program that will long linger in their minds. All the chicken that were served were grown by the N. F. A. boys, and the vegetables used were either grown by the boys or contributed by friends in different communities.

The purpose of the banquet was to bring to the parents of these boys and girls an account of their yearly accomplishment in these fields. The boys' demonstration on this program not only shows that they are receiving training in social, civic, and religious work that can be injected into their communities, but also proves that they are becoming more acquainted with the proper methods of farming with both vegetables and domesticated animals. The boys also demonstrated how the New Farmers of America Organization has grown from 1927, when the organization was started, until this date. They

How We Liked The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to stop parking meters. Police working in rows including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?

REP. B. ELLIOTT

Continued from Page 1 of Pahokee, as the next speaker of the house, to serve at the Legislative session of 1951. Elliott is now serving his third term in the Legislature and at this session is serving as Chairman of the Committee on Drainage and Water Control which is a most important committee for this and other south Florida counties.

Representative Elliott for many years has been a Ford automobile and farm machine and agent in Pahokee, and of late years has been engaged in ranching and developing new lands in both Palm Beach and Okeechobee counties.

Mrs. Elliott is spending the Legislature period in Tallahassee with her husband, and is acting as his office secretary. In financial ways the court and civil officers of Palm Beach County, have not fared bad at the Legislature, as local bills, passed and awaiting the Governor's signature, gives salary raises to the Circuit court judges from $7500 to $12,000 per year; the Criminal court judges from $4200 to $6,000; and the fee officers, such as the sheriff, tax collector and assessor, county judges, clerk of the criminal court, will each be drawing $10,000 to be paid out of office earnings. The county pays a large proportion of the judge's salaries.

The Belle Glade Home Demonstration club held a most pleasant all day session at the home of Mrs. Irvin Felsing on East Avenue E, last Thursday, with a good attendance. The display of needle and handcraft articles made by the members were on display and a number of same selected for show at the County Achievement day.

Local members who may have articles they would like to go into the club exhibit are asked to leave them with either Mrs. Glechill or Mrs. Felsing by nine o'clock, Saturday morning.

Following the noon day lunch, a short business meeting was held and Mrs. Spotty Burr, gave a fine report of the Council session at Delray. A momentary "Restoration and Decorating of Old Homes", was shown.

The county wide Achievement exhibit is to held at the Home Club in West Palm Beach, May 1-3.

Continued on page 4 county high school, on their own time and expense, and have done excellent work the past two school years.

The old cook stove in the city jail kitchen, on which thousands of meals for prisoners have been cooked over the years of use, has finally given up the ghost. Police Commissioner Deputy and Chief Gosslett were given authority to purchase a new range, likely of the restaurant type.

The entire Commission is to attend the session of the County Board of Public Instruction at West Palm Beach, Tuesday, to see if that body would not co-operate in a reciprocal manner, with the City, in connection with the establishment of a Learning Center. The City would like to secure a lease and option to purchase, the land of the present colored school when it is abandoned for school purposes.

Improvements in the way of roads, water mains, electric extensions for the new colored school will have cost the city around $50,000 when completed.

Raders, Incorporated, also tendered a lease, with option to purchase, a tract of ten acres down in the southwest portion of the city south of Avenue E. This offer was requested in detailed writing as it will also be considered if the school property is unobtainable.

City Inspector Willis reported to the Commission that the Multach and Crosby tenement properties cited for unsafe and unsanitary conditions, were being razed by the owners, and asked for dismissal of these charges. The Rader complaints were continued for 30 days, as the work of remodeling of same was well under way.

The so called "hand bill" ordinance was passed to its final reading. Hand bills can still be used by merchants under the ordinance.

Mrs. Harrison Raoul is Chairman of the Hospital Improvement Committee, and Mrs. O. G. Wetherhorst has charge of the program.

Statistics for period from October 1 to March 31, inclusive: Total Patients Admitted, 684; Total Patient Days, 3,174; Total County Patient, 43.

Many Local Children Have Cases of Mumps

The cooperation of parents is requested by Mrs. Elizabeth Howell, county nurse, in keeping their children who have mumps completely isolated for the period of 12 to 28 days. There are now many cases in the schools, and among the pre school children and the only way to stop the disease is to prevent exposure. Members of families who have a case in their home are carriers if they themselves have not had the mumps.

This disease, especially for adults, can be serious, Mrs. Howell said.

Huge Alligator Breaks Up A Fish Parley Near Observation Point

On the afternoon of April 22, Joe Cherry, Wallie Lutz and R. M. Davis hid themselves off at Observation Point for an evening fishing jaunt. They chose Alligator hole as the scene of their fishing and had done very well with their plug casting. The three were examining their strings of fish, and casting back into the water the smaller ones, when they heard a noise to their back.

Turing round they saw the head of an alligator rushing toward them that looked as big as a barn. The fish counting and releasing was abruptly ended and the trio made a hasty retreat from the shallow waters. The men declare that the reptile would surely have measured 12 feet in length. The gator did not seek the fish, which the boys recovered by some hook dragging.

No change was made in the fish contest at the Parley and Davis garage the past week, to replace the top base caught by Harold Fiebelman of six pounds and 14 ounces.

Clewiston Lodges To Soon Be Presented With Official Charters

As a result of action taken by the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star at Tampa, and the Grand Lodge of Masons, at Jacksonville, the chapter and lodge at Clewiston, will soon be instituted under regular charters.

These lodges for the past year have been operating under dispensation charters and having filled requirements were granted their full charter.

The Star chapter will be inducted into the afternoon and evening of May 9th, with Grand Worthy Matron Florence Carter, of Bagdad and Grand Worthy Patron, Melvin Keen, as the instituting officials. Moore Haven was the mother chapter of the new Clewiston chapter, a considerable number of its membership coming by transfer. This event will be attended by chapters from around the lake.

Sugarland Masonic Lodge is arranging for similar ceremonies but the date has not yet been determined.

Paul Hoenesal Now Big Stuart Grower Of Gladioli Crop

Paul Hoenesal, who for many years was manager of the Bessemer plantation holdings at Port Mayaca and operator of the famed Cypress Inn, is now located at Stuart, where he is extensively interested in growing of gladioli for the northern wholesale markets. In ten days he shipped out over 12,000 containers of these exquisite and decorative blooms. Memphis is his outlet for the majority of his shipments. The market has been excellent this season, and the demand greater. The harvest will end within the next ten days.

Kruse Brothers of Belle Glade and other growers at Lake Harbor also report a very good harvest of gladioli. While the bloom plays quite a part in the season financial income, it is the tuber roots that pay the best.

As for their own destiny. As Lincoln said, "It is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people." It has also been described as, "Diverse interests in some things, common interests in others, all of us subject to the general welfare and united only when confronted with a common danger. But what keeps democracy working? Our Bill of Rights guarantees liberty, absolute freedom to think freely and believe freely. In addition to these, freedom of speech, press, and assembly are provided. These freedoms enable man to express his ideas and ideals and can bring about revolutionary changes without violence.

A sense of power and responsibility is given to the individual by democracy. Each man is concerned with his welfare and that of his loved ones. His desire is to make use of his individuality, fluidity, ambition, and freedom; and thereby, he acquires a higher standard of living with even more power.

In a democracy each man can peddle his idea until interest is aroused. So inventions are made, labor progresses, and standards increase. Controls and industries relating to commerce, industry, communication, transportation, public health, promotion of education, science, and research grow. As the standards of living become higher for one group, so they become higher for another.

The people exercise their freedom of assemblies, beliefs, thoughts, speech and press when they assemble to draw up petitions to abolish this or promote that, revolutionists condemnning or approving an infinite variety of plans. They ban together to elect politicians whose desires seem to resemble their own. Then they stand behind their elected government to gain more political, social, and economic progress because a democracy extends this authority.

The government is moved by public demand. A politician, with or without interests similar to the peoples, will do all in his power to promote the demands of the public if for no other reason than to secure re-election or a higher position.

Democracy works because the "People" continue to work. They fight to obtain comfort and security; they vote on arising problems and elect capable politicians; they hold onto the belief of freedom by putting it into use; and they enjoy living as much as possible. Democracy works because it is elastic; it is absorbent; and it is responsive because it shows no partiality to any one pressure group, but an equal interest to all pressure groups.

School Lobbyists Are Busy On Job At Tallahassee

Two years ago the State Legislature passed legislation setting up a state wide school foundation, which as a whole proved most satisfactory but some features did not work well. Now in Tallahassee steps are in progress to correct errors and to place added desired features to the system, and the rough spots are being given a thorough polishing by the Legislators.

The Florida Education Association spokesmen have announced that they will agree to school board members staying on salary, altho the present bill places limitation on such stipends at the end of 1950 school year. The school group is pressing long and hard for a biennial allotment of $107,000, $60 for 1950-51.

Milton Campbell Gives Up Position In North Carolina

Milton Campbell, formerly with the Florida National Bank, of Belle Glade, who recently went to Marion, N. C. to accept an executive position with the First National Bank of that city, found that the climate was not suitable for his health, so he has resigned and returned to Belle Glade. As yet he has not determined in what type of business he will engage, but is expecting to engage in some Glades project.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE EDUCATORS

Question—Does the Bible really say that God is immortal?

Answer—Yes. Read 1 Timothy 1:17: "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, Invariable, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever."

Q—Are we not supposed to pray in church and not at home?

A—In 1 Timothy 2:15 the apostle Paul writes: "It will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting."

Q—Don't you think some folks make too much of the Bible?

A—In reply we read Psalm 138:2: "I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy name for Thy lovingkindness and for Thy truth: for Thou hast magnified Thy Word above all Thy name."

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:7-9.

Q—What do you think about gossiping?

A—The Bible says that our words are an index to our character. Matthew 12:34: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And by our words we shall be condemned in the judgment. "For by the words thou shalt be justified, and by the words thou shalt be condemned." Verse 37. Tale-bearing or unkind gossip is forbidden. "Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not judge thy neighbor." Leviticus 19:15. The words of a talebearer are wounds." Proverbs 16:28. "Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth." Verse 20. All our words are known to God. "For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether." Psalm 139:4.

Q—How can I know that my sins are forgiven?

A—By meeting God's conditions of forgiveness. "But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:7-9.

Q—What do you think about the Bible?

A—The Bible says that our words are an index to our character. Matthew 12:34: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And by our words we shall be condemned in the judgment. "For by the words thou shalt be justified, and by the words thou shalt be condemned." Verse 37. Tale-bearing or unkind gossip is forbidden. House Destroyed At Hooker's Point

Fire of undetermined origin totally destroyed a house and partially destroyed two adjoining cottages at Hooker's Point Sunday evening.

The buildings were owned by Rev. Earl Stuckey. The center residence in which the fire started was totally destroyed, had time to move out most of their furniture and personal effects before the fire had made the buildings untenable.

The Clewiston Fire Department responded to a call and were able to bring the fire under control in time to save 50 to 70 per cent of the two houses.

They worked under difficulty since the only source of water supply was a drainage ditch in which the water was low and which was choked with hyacinths and debris.

The Everglades Fire Control under direction of Fire Chief Howard Bair responded to a call and stood by in case a fire broke out in Clewiston while the department was busy at Hooker's Point.

South Bay Junior Legion Groups Have Joint Installation

The American Legion Auxiliary Juniors of South Bay enjoyed a combined installation of officers ceremony and a Tackey Party at the home of Mrs. W. C. Allen last week.

The session opened with an initiation of all new members followed by the installation of officers with Mrs. Allen acting as installation officer.

Donna Jean Norris was installed president, Wynne Collins vice-president, Jane Allen secretary, Marlene Walker treasurer, and Jane Norris chaplain.

An evening of stunts and games ended with a surprised stork shower honoring Mrs. Bob Bair, Junior Auxiliary Chairman, who has resigned and whose place is being taken over by Mrs. Allen. Many love gifts testified to the esteem in which she is held by the young auxiliary members.

Donna Jean Norris, Mary Clara Crider, Lorraine Kelly and Saide Willis were hostesses and provided refreshments with keeping with the occasion, cake, soft drinks, candy, peanuts and mints.

Others attending were Pauline Walker, Kay Young, Connie Kelly, Mary Passenger, Jeannett Buff, Harban and Barbara Bars and one visitor Patty Marachean.

Boys' Prank Draws Fines

A boys' prank boomeranged on four young men Sunday night when they blew the fire siren at Lake Harbor and they were fined $40.00 each and court or 15 days in jail in court Monday.

The Lake Harbor is justly proud of their volunteer fire department which holds regular drills and has worked like clockwork on the several fires which have tried them out since they were organized.

Several times lately the volunteer fire fighters and in fact the whole town have been aroused in the dead of night by the fire siren only to find it a false alarm.

Sunday evening the justly infamous band in with at several points of vintage and caught four young men, Purvis McAllister of Bean City, Junior Horton, John Ellison and Norman Piv of South Bay in the act of blowing the siren. They were lodged in the Belle Glade Jail and brought to trial Monday. They paid their fines and are at large, four sadder but wiser young men.

He is reported quite recovered from his harrowing experience.

Red Wings Defeated

The Cocoa Clowns of Cocoa crack colored team, came to town Saturday night, to play the Red Wings at Memorial park, the second visiting team in the new program of games for the High school band fund. The visitors made the usually good Red Wings look like amateurs, the latter being soundly trounced by a score of 13 to 5. The early evening rain kept attendance down. The Red Wings will play the West Palm Beach team at Memorial field on next Saturday night.

EVERGLADES PARK

by Donald E. Lee, Assistant Chief Counsel of the Service, A. B. Manly, Acting Land Acquisition Officer of the Service, Aviation Building, Coconut Grove, and R. M. McKee, Appraisal Consultant, Miami.

Carl W. Hawkins, St. Augustine, vice president of the Model Land Company, who represented the Flagler interests of which his company is a land owning unit, said: "The Model Land Co., and I feel that the final development of the Everglades National Park will be a tremendous asset to the State of Florida and will, no doubt, perhaps bring many millions of dollars into the State, which otherwise would not be the case. The creation of the Everglades National Park will also assure the protection of the wildlife in the area composed of many rare specimens."

The sale leaves 146,342 acres of privately held lands still to be acquired. Holdings of the Model Land Company in South Florida, of which the Everglades National Park coverage is the major portion, go deep into the history of the development of this section, Mr. Hawkins explained.

Henry M. Flagler, pioneer developer of the East Coast of Florida, carried his railroad southward, he had an eye on the Everglades. I feel that Florida would convey to the railroad state owned lands on the bases of 3700 acres for every mile of railroad constructed. When the Florida East Coast Railway was completed into Key West in the year 1912, the Railway Company put in a claim for 2,050,000 acres of land on that basis. The U. S. Board claimed it did not own that amount of acreage but offered to settle for 260,000 acres. Flagler eventually agreed to make the settlement.

Some 210,000 of the 260,000 acres were in the Cape Sable area and within the confines of the present Everglades National Park. The remaining 50,000 acres were in Broward, Dade and the Palm Beach Counties. The Model Land Company purchased the 260,000 acres from the railway company. In addition to the Model Land Company also acquired some 75,000 acres from M. L. McNeill and W. F. Coachman. These latter lands were also south of Homestead and a goodly portion within the Everglades National Park boundary.

The Model Land Company constructed the Ingraham Highway from Florida City southward to Flamingo and, in fact, to Lake Ingraham at a cost in excess of $200,000. Mr. Hawkins reported in addition to this construction, the Model Land Company also did reclamation work in the nature of canals and drainage. The actual cost of the lands sold to the National Park Service in the two transactions stands the Model Land Company $330,000 which figure of course includes the improvements. In addition to the $330,000 investment by the Model Land Company in the Cape Sable lands, the Model Land Company has paid in taxes to the State of Florida which they lands are located over the years of ownership $200,000 additional, making a total investment in lands, improvements and taxes, $530,000.

Under terms of the two sales the Model Land Company retains its interest in outstanding oil leases up to the years 1956 and 1968 respectively. If oil or gas is not being produced in commercial quantities by 1956 and 1958 then, under the terms of the present sale, the Model Land Company is obligated to assign all interests in outstanding oil leases to the federal government.

Approximately 20,000 acres of marl soils are included in the transaction. The soils have been encroached on over the years by salt water, and considerable expense would be incident to reclaiming them. The sovereignty lands, title to which is quoted by the transaction include some 50,000 acres in the White Water Bay area, Coon Bay, East Lake, West Lake and other lakes and ponds. The lands in the Cape Sable area have never been surveyed either by the state or the federal government, and include some additional 25,000 acres known as a hiatus. Because of the difficulty of establishing title to these lands they and the 50,000 acres of sovereignty lands were included in the 210,000 acres transaction.

Active work of developing the park so that it will be readily accessible to visitors awaits acquisition of the remaining privately held lands. Were the improvements to be made now, the land values would increase for which public money would have to be paid. In spite of its present undeveloped state 13-132 visitors to the park were counted in January and 15,147 in February.

The number of visitors is expected to top one million annually and to add as much as one hundred million dollars a year to the state's economy when the national park installations are completed.

Seagoing Hydrographic Office

Each month more than 2,000,000 charts roll off the presses of the U. S. Navy Hydrographic Office, giving detailed, vital data on the harbors and routes of the seven seas. U. S. Navy ships are constantly charting new segments of the oceans, new ports of call, new reefs and channels. Not only the fleet, but friendly mariners of many nations profit by these charts. Above is the USS Bowditch, famous exploration ship formerly owned by Cmdr. Donald B. McMillan, Arctic explorer, which is still in active service for the Hydrographic Office of the Navy.

local dusky bellies by the name Ruby Swint had the gentleman in her tow.
A round of visits to drinking palaces put the man to the bed, and when he woke up he found that his roll had been stolen. He reported his loss to the local police and soon Ruby was in the toils of the law. Searched man, somewhat of the sporty type, came out to Belle Glade to spend a week end visit. It was not long before one of the additional dollars were located.

Ruby was turned over to county officials for trial for her unwise actions.
Al Harris, a negro, took quick methods to attract attention, and he did in the county jail. He spread himself in the center of the Palm Beach road as if he had been injured. A passing tourist saw him and reported to the police, who picked him up. As he was raised up from the road a loaded revolver was found. Examination showed that he was not ill or injured, and it was believed he was planning robbery.

Pahokee Carpenter Meets Death By A Fall At Delray

Earl M. Graham, foreman on the new school building at Delray on Friday, met with a fatal accident, when he stepped through some false work, and plunged 24 feet to a lower floor where his head struck a concrete block. Graham, 55 years of age, was a resident of Pahokee.

Owing to the expected arrival of relatives from a distance, the body was held at the Delray funeral home and funeral services were not held until Thursday afternoon at the Pahokee Methodist church, of which he was member. Service being in charge of the pastor Rev. Howes. Dural was made at Hillcrest cemetery at West Palm Beach. Everglades Masonic Lodge also conducted its service. Graham, who was a World War I veteran, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Meredith, two sons, Loren and Earl, all of Pahokee, and one daughter, Mrs. Marion Eunice, of Columbus, Ga.

CINEMATOMIC CHAPTER

By Malcolm Miller
A wallowing fine ninety five minutes of tautness is to be offered to moviegoers at the Hugo Theatre this Sunday-Monday, when "Yellow Sky" is screened.

"Yellow Sky," recounts a story of seven men—outlaws, who, hunted over the burning Arizona badlands, hide out in a ghost town where a girl, who in the way of men and the desert, lives with her grandfather. The outlaws are excited by the hint of a hidden gold cache, which the old man has, and they become wracked with suspicion of each other. But it is the lone girl, and the ruthless determination of each of the men to make her his personal prize, that sparks the terror and tense drama of the inevitable battle between them, and builds the suspenseful plot to its terrific climax.

Gregory Peck is tops as the leader of the desperadoes whose efforts to keep the men in line is complicated by the complex relationship that develops between himself and the girl. Anne Baxter plays the desert-hardened girl, under the love her versatility with one of her finest performances to date. Richard Widmark is perfect as the treacherous outlaw who challenges Peck's lead. Others in the cast include Robert Arthur, John Russell, Henry Morgan, James Carson and Charles Kemper.

See you at the movies... Mal Bottle Toter Arrested

For Carrying Liquor To Baseball Game
There is a city law prohibiting the carrying of drinking liquid at athletic events at Memorial field. John Kish forgot that fact at the ball game Saturday night, and was hitting his bottle quite freely to keep up his spirit for the game, when the city cops arrested, and placed him in the calaboose.

Kish later drew a fine in municipal court to this offense. Mose Hilbition and John Wideman, colored prisoners at the State prison farm, found a life of idleness in their hands, so they just left the farm and came down into Delray to the sort of life of drinking and entertainment. City police picked up both men and turned them over to Deputy Sheriff Raymond Mock, who in turn presented them to the county authorities for an additional year sentence to the regular term of imprisonment.

CARE FOR YOUR GRASS: IT WILL CARE FOR THE CALF CROP AND STEERS

The calf crop and good grass are essential in producing robust steaks. A good beef steak, "fit for a king," is composed of good water, protein, and minerals. The edible portion of a good beef carcass is about 16 percent protein and 28 percent fat. The greatest and most important source of protein for beef cattle is pasture grass. The young tender vegetative growing grass is rich in protein content. Good grazing conditions are dependent on fertile soil, moisture, and good management. Proper use of the moving machine and weed control will increase the growth, quality and grazing 20-50 percent. Grass four to six inches high gives the cow a month full of milk and she gets a "fill" early in the morning, rests in the shade during the heat of the day chewing her cud and making milk and beef.

Grass is the Nation's greatest asset, the state's greatest crop, the cattlemen's hope, the cow's lifeline, yielding a "calf crop" that puts milk and beef on the Nation's tables. Yes, grass guarantees the little children of this Nation highly nutritious food; therefore the grass on the pastures, ranges, and farms should be protected from weeds, bushes, briars, and over-grazing. "Good grass" means good beef.

Grass is dependent on moisture, sunlight, and fertility for its greatest production. Weeds, bushes, and briars rob the grass of moisture, steal the fertility of the soil, and choke out the grass from the sunlight. This results in thin, underfed cows, low percentage calf crops.

ADDITIONAL TO BELL GLADE, PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA. The Board of Public Instruction of Palm Beach County, Florida, will receive and consider for the erection of a new building for the Bell Glade High School, located on the corner of Bell Glade and Highway 1, in the Town of Bell Glade, Palm Beach County, Florida, until 10:00 A.M. Eastern Standard Time on the 15th day of May, 1949, at the office of the County Superintendent of Public Instruction, located at 100 N. Dixie Ave., West Palm Beach, Florida, and at the office of the Architect, Edgar S. Workman, 1122 N. Dixie Ave., West Palm Beach, Florida, and at the office of the Engineer, Edgar S. Workman, 1122 N. Dixie Ave., West Palm Beach, Florida, for each set of said documents so required.

small stunted calves, and a high death loss during the winter. Fertilizing pastures, according to records, greatly increases the amount of beef produced per acre as well as increasing the number of cattle that can be profitably grazed on a given area. It is estimated that protein production is three times greater on fertilized lands than on unfertilized lands. These records bear out observations that rich nutritious grasses increase the yield and carrying capacity and result in strong healthy animals and a larger "calf crop".

Overstocking of pastures and allowing bushes and briars to grow means a reduction in pounds of beef produced on a given area. In addition, it means poor underfed breeding herd, low percentage calf crop, small scrawny cows, and high death loss from disease and excess death loss from winter starvation.

A cow needs a certain amount of feed to maintain body weight; she needs an additional amount for production and to gain in flesh. Records show that cows given plenty of grazing area produce 15 to 20 percent calves, weigh 35 to 40 percent heavier at weaning time. This kind of grazing cuts production costs and increases profits.

Steve Lenart Making Good On His Glades County Corn Crop

L. C. Strayer, Steve Lenart, W. F. Muller and W. F. Tobias, are Glades county farmers who are now reaping most satisfactory harvests. Lenart, by hand spraying seems to have been the most successful corn producer as his acreage is producing around 90 per cent of grade A sweet corn. Lenart and Muller have 220 acres in corn and expect the harvesting season to extend into June as the crop has been planted at different dates, so as to providing a continuing harvest. Car load shipments are being forwarded to the northern markets, 550 boxes to the car, each box holding five dozen ears of corn. Muller is also shipping tomatoes which are bringing from $5 dollars a field box at the field.

Glades Conservation Lands Will Not Be Sold By The State

Officials of the Everglades Drainage District have given assurance that it has no intent to sell any of its lands that are included in the water control and conservation district boundaries. Such acreage aggregates $17,000 acres.

The district officials hope to pay off all district indebtedness by 1951, and then turn over the lands to the Conservation district. Lands outside the conservation district will be sold and funds turned back to pay off bonds, when pending litigation in courts are ended.

The acreage of the conservation district is largely owned by the I-I, or held for the benefit of the Everglades Drainage District and the State Board of Public Instruction.
